Saab Receives Orders for Defence Equipment

Saab has signed a framework agreement with a Government of a Western country and received orders within the agreement for a number of defence systems. The total order value is approximately SEK 8 billion with deliveries planned 2023–2026.

The orders include Saab's Carl-Gustaf® multi-purpose shoulder launched weapon, the RBS 70 NG short-range air defence system and the Giraffe 1X radar.

Due to the nature of the industry, circumstances concerning the customer and national security interests, no further information regarding these orders or the customer will be provided.

“We are proud to provide the world-leading capabilities of Saab's product portfolio. With this order, we continue our commitment to keep people and society safe,” says Saab's President and CEO Micael Johansson.
