ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

SAAB AKTIEBOLAG

The name of the Company is SAAB AKTIEBOLAG. The Company is public (publ).

The object of the Company's business is, directly or indirectly, to develop, manufacture, sell and maintain products to the aviation, engineering and electronic industries, and to provide technical services and consultancy in the electronics, telecommunications and computer fields. Operations are directed primarily at defence materiel. The company shall also own and manage real estate and chattels, buy and sell rights, and engage in financing activities as well as any other business compatible therewith.

The registered office of the Company shall be located in Linköping, Sweden.

The share capital shall comprise no less than seven hundred and fifty million (750,000,000) Swedish kronor and no more than three billion (3,000,000,000) Swedish kronor.

The number of shares shall be not less than 46,875,000 and not more than 187,500,000.

The shares shall be issuable in two series, designated Series A and Series B. Shares of either series may be issued in a number equivalent to the entire share capital.

When voting at a shareholders' meeting, one share of Series A shall entitle the shareholder to ten votes and one share of Series B shall entitle the shareholder to one vote. In all other respects, the shares of Series A and Series B are equal to each other.

A shareholder is entitled to demand that shares of Series A in his possession be converted into shares of Series B. An application to this effect shall be submitted in writing to the Company's Board of Directors, stating how many shares the owner wishes to convert and supplying all and any other information and documents that the Board of Directors may request. It is the duty of the Company's Board of Directors to report such application for registration purposes within one month of receipt of the application. Conversion shall take effect when registration has been completed.

If the Company resolves to issue new shares of Series A and Series B through a cash issue or an issue by set-off, holders of shares of Series A and Series B shall have preferential right of subscription to new shares of the same share series in proportion to the number of shares already owned by the shareholder (primary preferential right). Shares which have not been acquired on the basis of primary preferential right shall be offered for subscription to all shareholders (subsidiary preferential right). If the shares thus offered are insufficient for subscription on the basis of subsidiary preferential right, the shares shall be allocated among the subscribers in proportion to the number of shares already held by them and, to the extent this cannot be done, through the drawing of lots.

If the Company resolves to issue through a cash issue or an issue by set-off shares either of Series A or Series B, but not both, all shareholders, regardless of whether their shares are of Series A or Series B, shall have preferential right of subscription to new shares in proportion to the number of shares already held by them.

If the Company resolves to issue, through a cash issue or an issue by set-off, warrants or convertible promissory notes, the shareholders shall, respectively, have preferential right of subscription to the warrants as if the issue concerned the shares that may be subscribed under the warrant, and preferential right of subscription to the convertible promissory notes as if the issue concerned the shares that the convertible promissory notes may be exchanged for.

The above shall not entail any limitation to the possibility of reaching a decision on a cash issue or an issue by set-off departing from the shareholders' preferential right. If the share capital is increased through a bonus issue, new shares of each series shall be issued in proportion to the number of shares of the same series as already exist. In this connection, earlier shares of a specific series shall entitle the shareholder to new shares of the same series. This shall not entail any limitation to the possibility to issue shares of a new series through a bonus issue, following requisite amendments to the Articles of Association.
