Press release 4 July 2023

Saab receives order for Carl-Gustaf M4 from Australia

Saab has received an order from the Australian Department of Defence for the supply of additional Carl-Gustaf® M4 weapons. The order value is AUD 56 million with deliveries during 2024-2025.

The Carl-Gustaf M4 weapons will be delivered with Saab's new Fire Control Device, FCD 558.

"This order continues Saab's longstanding relationship with the Australian Defence Force and again demonstrates the diverse range of products and services we offer," said Saab Australia Managing Director, Andy Keough CSC.

"We are proud to deliver modern and user-focused weapon systems that ensure the ADF's ability to meet a wide range of challenges on the battlefield. Saab's support for the ADF extends from these advanced weapons through to ground based air defence solutions, battle management systems and world-leading deployable health and infrastructure services."

Proven to deliver results on the battlefield, Carl-Gustaf provides the effectiveness soldiers need. The wide range of ammunition types for Carl-Gustaf makes it flexible and able to handle any situation, whether it is to destroy an armoured vehicle or structure, or illuminating the battlefield during night operations.

The Carl-Gustaf system is supplied to more than 40 countries around the world.

Saab is a leading defence and security company with an enduring mission, to help nations keep their people and society safe. Empowered by its 19,000 talented people, Saab constantly pushes the boundaries of technology to create a safer, more sustainable and more equitable world. Saab designs, manufactures and maintains advanced systems in aeronautics, weapons, command and control, sensors and underwater systems. Saab is headquartered in Sweden. It has major operations all over the world and is part of the domestic defence capability of several nations.

Contact

Paul Armanas
paul.armanas@au.saabgroup.com
+61 (0)466 440 541

Saab Press Centre
+46 (0)734 180 018
presscentre@saabgroup.com